MEDIA RELEASE

RICHARD J. DEVLIN, JR
SHERIFF

CAMERON S. ALLISON
UNDERSHERIFF

Charges: CSCS 3rd - felony
Person(s): Tyron Edward Morris, 28, 1658 Carry St, Schenectady, NY
Date of arrest: July 7, 2014 @ 1:40 p.m.
Court date: County Court on 07/21/14 @ 9:30 a.m.

A Schenectady man was arrested yesterday afternoon by investigators when he showed up for his probation appointment in Schenectady County. Morris, who is presently on probation for attempted CSCS 3rd, was arrested on an Otsego County Court sealed indictment warrant of arrest. The arrest is a result of a narcotics investigation by the Otsego County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigation Division and the Oneonta Police Department Detective Bureau last August when Morris sold heroin to another person in the City of Oneonta. Morris was arraigned by County Court Judge John F. Lambert and remanded to the OCCF on $25,000 bail returnable later this month in the County Court. He faces up to 12 years in prison on the sale charge and additional time on his Schenectady County probation violation. District Attorney John M. Muehl is prosecuting the case.
