- Candidates who will not receive or spend more than $50.00 for their campaign, including their own funds.
- Treasurers of committees formed solely to support or oppose ballot propositions and will not raise or spend over $100.00 relative to the ballot proposition
- Candidate for public office or treasurer of an authorized committee solely supporting one candidate for public office or treasurer of a committee solely supporting or opposing a ballot proposition; and the receipts or expenditures of the candidate or committee will not exceed $1000.00 in the aggregate for the campaign.

The CF-05 form is filed with the County Board of Elections when a candidate declares their candidacy. This form is filled only once and must be notarized.

Once you have received or spent $1,000 (as a result of receipts or expenses) you must file with the NYS Board of Elections. Once you are required to file with the NYS Board of Elections all filing from that point on will be done with the NYS Board of Elections.

Candidates who spend their own money must account for that money as money received.
